Privacy Policy

Statrics BV ("Statrics", "we", "our" or "us") are the developers and publishers of statrics.io .

This Privacy Policy describes how Statrics BV and its affiliates collect, use, and share information in connection with your use of our websites, services, and applications (collectively, the "Services").

We may collect and receive information about users of our Services ("users", "you" or "your") from various sources, including information you provide when you register for the Services and through your use of the Services.

We recommend that you read this Privacy Policy in full to ensure you are fully informed. If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or Lurkit's data collection, use, and disclosure practices, please contact us at privacy@statrics.io.

Information we may collect from you and how we use it

Information you provide

Account Registration and Settings. When you register an account for the Services, we will ask you to provide us with account verification and contact information in the form of an email address.

We collect this information for the purpose of verifying and giving your account access to the Service and to give you essential information relating to the use of the applications.

We may further use this information to communicate and personalize communication with you regarding product updates, newsletters and special offers, only when you have consented hereto.

Communications. If you contact us directly, we may receive additional information about you such as your name, email address, phone number, the contents of the message and/or attachments you may send us, and any other information you may choose to provide.

We collect this information to communicate with you and to assist you with resolving requests or issues addressed by you. Information provided through direct communication will never be used in any other manner than to provide feedback on the matter at hand.

Information we collect when you use our Services

Each time you use the Services we may automatically collect the following information:

Location information: When using our applications and visiting our websites, we collect your IP address to identify your geographical location

We collect this information to provide localization of the Services for your language as well as for security and fraud detection

System and application usage information: When using our applications, we may collect system and application usage information, including application settings and device information.

We collect this information to optimize settings and features for our users, to understand and analyze our users' technical requirements and interaction with the Services, and to better resolve support issues.

"Cookies" Information: When you access the Services, we may send one or more cookies – small text files containing a string of alphanumeric characters – to your computer. We may use both session cookies and persistent cookies. A session cookie disappears after you close your browser. A persistent cookie remains after you close your browser and may be used by your browser on subsequent visits to the Service. Persistent cookies can be removed. Please review your web browser "Help" file to learn the proper way to modify your cookie settings. Please note that by blocking any or all cookies you may not have access to certain features, content or personalization available through the Services.

We collect this information to provide a better experience on the Services by storing certain information between sessions, and to analyze aggregate anonymized user behaviour on our Services. We further use this information to provide targeted marketing messages only when you have consented hereto.

How we share information

We will never share your personally identifiable information with any third party for their marketing or other purposes. We do not sell, trade, share or rent User personal identification information to others.

Data retention and deletion

We retain your personally identifiable information only as long as you wish to maintain a user account for the Services. You may delete your account for the Services at any time through the user settings of the Services, or by contacting us at privacy@statrics.io. When you delete your account for the Services, we will anonymize or delete all your personally identifiable information unless otherwise required by law.

Data access and correction

Under certain circumstances, you have the right to access or correct your personal information. You can generally access and update your personal information at any time in your account settings.

Also, you can ask us to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by following the unsubscribe links on any marketing message sent to you or by removing your consent to receive such messages in your account settings.

International Data Transfer (For EU users)

The information that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at servers outside of the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff of lurkit or our subsidiaries, operating outside the EEA. By accepting this Privacy Policy, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing in countries outside of the EEA where we operate. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Security

We take all reasonable steps to protect information we receive from you from loss, misuse or unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and/or destruction. We have put in place industry-standard and appropriate physical, technical, and administrative measures to safeguard and secure your information, and we make use of privacy-enhancing technologies such as encryption.

Privacy of Children

You must be at least 13 years old to use our Services or such minimum required age in your country which allows for collection of your personally identifiable information. In addition to being of the minimum required age to use our Services under applicable law, if you are not old enough to have authority to agree to our Terms and Privacy Policy in your country, your parent or guardian must agree to our Terms and Privacy Policy on your behalf before you may use the Services.

If we learn that personally identifiable information of persons less than 13-years-of-age or less than the age required in their country, has been collected on or through the Services, we will take the appropriate steps to delete this information and delete the child's account for the Services.

If you have knowledge of use of the Services by a child under 13 or under the age required for using the Services in your country, then please contact us at privacy@statrics.io. to have that child's account terminated and information deleted.

Changes to policy

This Privacy Policy may be modified from time to time, so please review it frequently. If we make any changes to this Privacy Policy, the updated Privacy Policy will be posted on this website, noting the effective date of any changes. If we make changes to this Privacy Policy that we believe materially impact the privacy of your personal data, we will promptly provide notice of any such changes and obtain consent where necessary.

Contact us

You may contact us by sending an email to privacy@statrics.io.
